

Living History Weekend

June 24-25, 2023

The New Castle Historical Society is organizing a living history weekend on New Castle Common, complete with a period encampment, New England military reenactors who portray frontier soldiers from 1623-1783 and colonial artisans.

There will be many activities and demonstrations of various skills with an opportunity for the public to interact with the presenters. All schedules can be found at this website as the event develops.
